- We are Christian disciples modelling gospel values in all of our words and actions, particularly in situations of conflict.
- We are committed to our own faith formation.
- We witness to the presence of Christ in each child; and children are core to all of our decisions.
- We recognize we are instruments of formation.

In our relationships as a community of disciples:

- We build complimentary relationships with our partners, other stakeholders and the public.
- We look for every opportunity to speak with one voice on matters affecting the well-being and sustainability of Catholic education in Alberta.
- We recognize and honour our diversity, and the demands of our individual situations.
- We commit to active involvement in the organization.
- We assume the best intentions of each person.

We are dedicated to providing quality education and the principle of excellence; and therefore, we commit to collectively growing in knowledge and to making informed decisions based on shared research.
